

September 2022

Dear Ladies,

I hope this letter finds you well and enjoying the last few moments of summer. I am eagerly anticipating fall with its cool breezes, beautiful colors, all around coziness, and the start of our next Women by Design Class!

I am writing to invite you to join this year's class. Your husband is signed up for one of the men's training courses, so our class is the perfect compliment. It is a commitment from October through May. The class is designed to strengthen and sharpen us in our roles as wives, moms, and Christians through discussion and fellowship.

We discuss many messages, articles, and books from authors including John Piper, Kevin De Young, and Tim Keller. We have coffee dates. We have a ladies' Christmas party. We conclude the year with a WBD food and fun extravaganza. We laugh, we cry, but most importantly we grow in our relationship with the Lord and one another. It is a life changing year. This isn't because the class is so great (although, I do kinda like it), but because God is faithful to meet us as we engage in fellowship.

Please consider joining us this year. I do ask that you consider the time commitment before agreeing to participate, as the class and each member will benefit most from consistency in attendance.

We will be having a kickoff dinner on September 30th. More details will follow.

With much love and gratefulness to God for you-

Grace
